

Yigdal

30b

Version 1

Jacob Rappaport
Arr. Stuart Izon

This is one of the most well known settings of Yigdal, and seems to be the default choice in much of North America. It appears in the first volume of Zamru Lo, listed as "notated by Oscar Julius". However, I have found this tune in a handwritten notebook of congregational melodies by Jacob Rappaport, where it is marked with Rappaport's name clearly at the top. The melodic contour is slightly different from how it is generally sung today, but it is unmistakably the same song. (Photocopies from this notebook were in the possession of cantor Robert Kieval, and are kindly hosted online at the Cantorial and Synagogue Music Archive.)
