

Hal'lu

108b

Version 2

Julius Mombach
Arr. Stuart Izon

This is the shortest of all the psalms and the shortest chapter of the Bible. Compared to the surrounding psalms of the Hallel which are particularistic and mostly in the singular, this is more universalistic in message.

In theory this is actually a Chanukah melody: it appears in the Chanukah section of Mombach's book with a corresponding L'cha Ezbach, but in the Blue Book it is referred to as a general Hallel melody suitable for all festive occasions (and an arrangement of Maoz Tzur is suggested for Psalm 117 on Chanukah instead).
