

Lo Amut

111e

Version 3

Joseph Gottbetter
Arr. Stuart Izon

Gottbetter's Lo Amut from Hallel is one of the classic "big pieces" of chazzanut. Not only is it technically demanding, containing distinct sections of various textures, but it spans an emotional range from resilience to introspection to great joy. It is well worth the challenge, for its picturesque word painting and dramatic ending.

Lo Amut is undoubtedly Gottbetter's most well known composition, and was published in Avraham Moshe Bernstein's Avodat Habore.
