

Kaddish

(for Festival Evening)

123a

Version 2

Trad.
Arr. Stuart Izon

This traditional melody heralds the start of the three festivals, appearing during the evening service immediately prior to the recitation of the Festival Amida. Note that it is not intended for any of the Kaddishes during the daytime (which have their own distinctive tunes). I would argue this is one of the best synagogue melodies of the entire year – typically the entire congregation joins in enthusiastically. Therefore it is somewhat disappointing that this Kaddish is not particularly well known outside the UK.
