

Kaddish

(following Torah reading)

139a

Version 4

Trad.
Arr. Stuart Izon

This old traditional melody is specifically intended for the Kaddish following the Torah reading on Festivals. Although it is still very pervasive in UK congregations, the lack of familiarity with the melody (no doubt due to its infrequency) often leads to it being butchered by even the most enthusiastic of Ba'alei Tefila. The opening line traces the ascending minor scale (similar to Hatikva, Leoni's Yigdal and Blumenthal's Eitz Chaim).
