

Shomer Yisrael

426a

Version 2

Samuel Alman
Arr. Stuart Izon

Alman's Shomer Yisrael is one of the most hauntingly beautiful compositions in the liturgy. It is unclear to me whether Alman wrote this specifically for S'lichot, but it now seems intrinsically linked with these penitential prayers for the days leading up to Yom Kippur. Although the words come from the daily Tachanun, when they are said as part of S'lichot, they take on an added resonance. We cry out to our creator with profound sorrow, "Guardian of Israel, guard the remnant of Israel, and let Israel not perish".
