

Im Eshkachech

436b

Version 2

Shlomo Carlebach
Arr. Stuart Izon

As an interlude to his famous melody, Shlomo Carlebach added the following English words, which articulate Jewish hopes and aspirations towards Jerusalem and the land of Israel for the last 2000 years:

*There is no pain in the world which can make us forget Y'rushalayim,
There is no joy in the world which can make us forget Y'rushalayim.
For 2000 years, whenever we prayed, and we prayed all the time,
We directed our thoughts, our feet, our minds to Y'rushalayim.
If you would have stopped a little Yiddele on his way to the gas chambers,
And you would ask him, "What are you thinking about?"
He would answer, "I am thinking of Y'rushalayim, I'm on my way to Y'rushalayim."
If you'll stop a little Yiddele on his way to Siberia and ask "What are you thinking about?"
He will answer, "I am thinking of Y'rushalayim, I'm on my way to Y'rushalayim"*

Adagio

The musical score is written for three voices: Chazzan, Melody Alto, and Tenor Bass. The key signature is one flat (Bb) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked 'Adagio'. The Chazzan part is in the soprano range, the Melody Alto part is in the alto range, and the Tenor Bass part is in the bass range. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score consists of two systems of three staves each. The first system covers the first four measures, and the second system covers the next four measures. The lyrics are: 'Im esh-ka-chech y' - ru-sha - la - yim tish - kach tish - kach tish-'. The second system continues with: '-kachy' - mi - ni im esh - ka-chech y' - ru-sha - la - yim'. The Melody Alto part has a 'Oo' vocalization in the second measure of the first system and the second measure of the second system. The Tenor Bass part has a 'Oo' vocalization in the second measure of the second system.
