

L'cha Adonai

55a

Version 3

Louis Lewandowski
Arr. Stuart Izon

As we carry the Torah to the Bima we sing a verse from Chronicles 29, and many traditions also continue with words from Psalm 99. This popular melody was composed by Louis Lewandowski. Though his score does not have a full harmonic arrangement, the melody implies a secondary dominant and a brief journey to the relative minor.

There is also somewhat of a modern tradition to skip a beat going from the word "rosh" straight into "rom'mu". This is neither correct nor incorrect, as Lewandowski's original composition ends at "rosh" and does not include the words from Psalm 99.
