

Mi Sheberach for Tzahal

61a

(Eretz Tzvi)

Version 2

Dubi Seltzer
Arr. Stuart Izon

Although this melody has become very well known with these words from the Mi Sheberach, Dubi Seltzer originally wrote it for the song Eretz Tzvi which memorialises Mivtza Yonatan, the operation to rescue hostages from Entebbe airport in Uganda.

Larghetto

Chazzan

Melody Alto

Tenor Bass

Mi she-be - rach a - vo - tei - nu av-ra-ham yitz-chak v'-ya - a - rech et cha-ya - lei tz'va ha - ga - na l'-yis - ra -

Oo

5

C.

M
A

T
B

-kov hu y' - va - rech et cha-ya - lei tz'va ha - ga -
-el hu y' - va - rech et cha-ya - lei tz'va ha - ga -

hu y' va - rech et cha-ya - lei

8 1. 2.

C.
 -na___ l'-yis - ra - el hu y'-va na___ l'-yis - ra - el ha-o-m'

M A
 Oo l'-yis - ra - el Oo l'-yis - ra - el

T B

12

C.
 -dim almish-mar_ ar - tzei-nu v'-a - rei e-lo-hei - nu mig-

M A
 Oo Oo

T B

16

C.
 -vul ha-l'-va-non_ v'-admid-barmitz-ra - yim u-min ha-yam ha-ga-dolad la-vo ha-a-ra - va ba-ya-ba-

M A
 Oo

T B

20

C.

M
A

T
B

24

C.

M
A

T
B

28

2. molto rit.

C.

M
A

T
B