

Ashrei

67a

Version 2

Salomon Sulzer
Arr. David M. Davis

Following an exhortation in Brachot 4b, we read the prayer of Ashrei at least three times a day. Though mostly composed of Psalm 145, its first two lines are from Psalm 84 and Psalm 144, both beginning with the word Ashrei.

This short declamatory introduction to Ashrei (before we return the Torah to the Ark) is one of many incidental pieces written by Sulzer, though the choral response is really an innovation by David M Davis (at the turn of the 20th century).
