Version 1

Abraham Moshe Bernstein
Arr. Stuart Izon

This setting is taken from Bernstein's Avodat Haborei, and it's one of the most dynamic compositions in his collection, almost cinematic in scope, with the kind of dramatic sweep you'd expect from a film score, woven throughout with modern harmony. An opening fanfare announces the piece, then returns twice more: at Uv'shofar Gadol and again at the very end, on V'tichtov. Bernstein served as chazan in Vilna's Taharat Hakodesh synagogue for thirty years, and was a key figure in the development of modern cantorial music.
