

El Melech Yosheiv

312b

Version 1

Wolf Shestapol
Arr. Stuart Izon

Whilst this setting is sometimes attributed to Herman Wohl, it seems most likely that this is originally a piece by Shestapol (who had already died by the time Wohl was born). His music was never published, and what we have today is reassembled from fragmented collections. The composition includes sections for choir, a chazzan, and an alto solo (here swapped to a baritone). It sits mostly in the harmonic minor, building to an explosive major ending.
