

Y'ru Et Adonai

511b

Version 3

Ya'akov Prager
Arr. Stuart Izon

Y'ru is the final paragraph of Birkat Hamazon in nusach Ashkenaz. It is composed of verses which reaffirm our trust in God as sustainer and provider.

The chassidic musicologist Meir Shimon Geshuri included this melody in his collection of niggunim from Aleksander chassidut. Other sources attribute it more specifically to Rabbi Ya'akov Prager, who served as the principal composer for the Aleksander Chassidic court from 1885 until 1910. Over time, however, the melody spread beyond Aleksander and became popular among other chassidic groups. According to tradition, the Imrei Chaim (the Vizhnitzer Rebbe) heard the melody at a wedding and set to it the words of Yism'chu V'malchut'cha from the Shabbat Amidah. This may also help explain its wider transmission, as Vizhnitz became one of the largest chassidic dynasties after the Second World War.

Today the melody is widely sung throughout the Jewish world as a setting for Y'ru et Adonai, for Shir Hama'alot at the beginning of Birkat Hamazon, and as a wordless niggun on Simchat Torah.

Allegretto

Melody Alto
8
Y' - ru et a-do-nai k' - do-shav ki ein mach-sor li - rei-av k' -

Tenor
Bass

6
M
A
8
- fi - rimra-shu v'-ra - ei - vu v'-do-r' - shei a-do-nai lo yach-s'-ruchol tov ho -

T
B

10
M
A
8
- du la-do-nai ki tov ki l' - o-lam chas - do po -

T
B

14

M A

8

-tei - ach et ya - de - cha u - mas - bi - a l' - chol__chaira-tzon ba -

T
B

18

M A

8

-ruch ha-ge - ver a - sheryiv-tach ba - do-nai v' - ha-ya a - do - nai__miv-ta-cho

T
B

22

M A

8

na - ar ha-yi - ti gam__za - kan - ti v' - lo ra - i - ti tza-dik ne - e-zav

T
B

26

M A

8

v' - za - ro m'-va - kesh__la - chem a - do-nai oz l' - a - mo yi - ten__

T
B

30

M A

8

rit. a - do - nai y' - va - rech et__a - mo__va - sha - lom

T
B